

Redwood City Girls Softball League

Code of Conduct for Coaches & Managers

I hereby pledge to provide positive training, care, and encouragement for my players participating in RCGSL by following this Code of Ethics:

- I will encourage good sportsmanship by demonstrating positive support for all players, parents, coaches, umpires, and league officials at every practice and games.
- I will encourage good sportsmanship by demonstrating positive support for all players, parents, coaches, umpires and league officials at every practice and games.
- I will demonstrate mutual respect toward other coaches, umpires, and all league officials on and off the field.
- I will place the emotional and physical well-being of my players ahead of my personal desire to win.
- I will read and understand RCGSL's current Operating Rules, Specific Age Division Rules, and familiarize myself with the ASA Official Rules of Softball.
- I will control and be fully responsible for the conduct of my team players, parents, and spectators.
- I will insure that my players play under safe conditions and on safe fields.
- I will remember that the game is for the girls and not for the parents or coaches.
- I will do my best to teach the girls the game of fast pitch softball while at the same time making it enjoyable and fun.
- I will be a good role model, and always be on time and be in attendance, for all practices and games.
- I will organize and conduct well-planned practices for learning skills, and be fair toward all players for playing time, and playing positions.

Consequences:

- A verbal warning from RCGSL and/or written reprimand from RCGSL.
- Placement on probation.
- Any further problems will result in removal from the program.
